Floral Gardens
AMHERST, VIRGINIA

I RIS FLOWER, you speak to me
Of fair and wondrous worlds that be
In the azure depths of Infinity.

There's a gleam of the gold of Ophir
Through the purple robes of Night.
There's a glint of the Frost King's palace
Aglow with Aurora's light.

I yield to the touch of your magic wand
And dream and dream with you alone,
Fair messenger from out the great unknown,

Plant Patience in the garden of the soul!
The roots are bitter, but the fruits are sweet;
But when, at last, it stands a tree complete,
Beneath its tender shade the burning heat
And burden of the day shall lose control.
Plant Patience in the garden of the soul!
